

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT, THIRD JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF FLORIDA
ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 2005-003

CASE NO _____

IN RE: THE MARRIAGE OF _____, Petitioner,
and _____, Respondent

STANDING FAMILY LAW COURT ORDER

The following Standing Family Law Court Order shall apply to both parties in an original action for dissolution of marriage, separate maintenance, or annulment. The Order shall be in effect with regard to the petitioner upon filing of the petition; and with regard to the respondent, upon service of the summons and petition or upon waiver and acceptance of service. The following Order shall remain in effect during the pendency of the action unless modified, terminated, or amended by further order of the court upon the motion of either of the parties:

1. Neither party shall sell, transfer, encumber, conceal, assign, remove or in any way dispose of, without the consent of the other party in writing, or without an order of the court, any property (whether real, personal or mixed in nature) individually or jointly held by the parties, except in the usual course of business or for customary and usual household expenses, or for reasonable attorney's fees in connection with this action.

2. Neither party shall incur any unreasonable debts, including but not limited to further borrowing against any credit line secured by the family residence, further encumbering any assets, or unreasonably using credit cards or cash advances against credit or bank cards.

3. Neither party shall permanently remove the minor child or children of the parties from the State of Florida without written consent of the other party or an order of the court.

4. Neither party shall cause the other party or the children of the marriage to be removed from any hospital and/or dental insurance coverage, and each party shall maintain the existing medical, hospital, and dental insurance coverage in full force and effect.

5. Neither party shall change the beneficiaries of any existing life insurance policies, and each party shall maintain the existing life insurance, automobile insurance, homeowner's or renter's insurance policies in full force and effect.

6. If the parties have a child or children, a party vacating the family residence shall notify the other party or the party's attorney, in writing, within forty-eight hours of the time he or she moves, of an address where the relocated party can receive communication. This provision shall not apply if there is a conflicting court order.

7. If the parents of the children live apart during the dissolution proceeding, they shall assist their children in having contact with both parties which is consistent with the previous habits of the family. Such contact shall include personal contact, by telephone, and in writing—unless there is a conflicting court order.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers in Lake City, Columbia County, Florida, this 23rd day of February, 2005.

JULIAN E. COLLINS, Chief Circuit Judge

Failure to obey this standing order may be punishable by contempt of court. If you wish to modify the conditions of this order, you must file an appropriate motion with the Family Court Clerk's Office in the county where the action is pending.

Service of this Standing Order shall be made with service of a petition for dissolution of marriage, separate maintenance, or annulment.
